UK foreign secretary questions Russia's 'appetite' for peace

... challenges Lavrov at tense G20 meet

UK Foreign Secretary David Lammy said he saw no appetite for peace from Russia in Ukraine after listening to a speech by Russia's top diplomat at a tense Group of 20 meeting in South Africa.

Lammy was speaking to reporters on Thursday after Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrow addressed other senior diplomats in a closed door session at the G20 foreign ministers meeting in Johannesburg. "I have to say when I listened to what the Russians and what Lavrow have just said in the chamber this aftermoon. I don't see an appetite to really get to that peace," Lammy said. Lammy said Lavrow left his seat in the meeting room when it was Lammy's turn to speak. No details of I autrow's speech we released.

US President Donald Trump has further upended the West's position by criticisting. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and falsely blaming Ukraine for the full-scale invasion by Russia. The war's third anniversary is next week. "At the moment, we've had talks effectively about talks," Lammy said. "We've not got anywhere near a negotiated settlement." In his own speech, which was released by the UK Foreign Office, Lammy reinised Russia for what he called "Isarist imperialism". "You know, mature countries for what he called "Tsarist imperialism".

"You know, mature countries learn from their colonial failures and their wars, and Europeans have had much to learn over the generations and the centuries," Lammy said, according to the transcript from the UK Foreign Office.
"But I'm afraid to say that Russia has learned nothing."

Brazil's top court justice orders X to pay USD 1.4 million fine for non-compliance

PTI SAO PAULO

Brazil's Supreme Court Unstice Alexandre de Moraes ordered X to pay 8.1 million Brazilian reais (USD 1.4 million) in fines for failing to comply with judical orders, according to a judicial ruling. The ruling, signed on Wednesday and made public by the court on Thursday, said the social media platform refused to provide registration data for a profile attributed to Allan dos Santos, an ally of former president Jair Bolsonaro accused of spreading falsehoods.

In July 2024, De Moraes ordered both X and Meta to block and ban the account and provide the data. X said it had blocked the account but could not deliver the requested information, arguing that its operators didn't collect it and that the user had 'no technical connection point with Brazil'.

De Moraes rejected the argument and, in early August imposed a daily fine of 1000.00 Brazillan reais (USD 17,500) if the social media platform failed to provide the data. By October, the total fine for noncompliance had reached 8.1 million Brazilian reais. X appealed but later notified the court that it would pay the fine. Kash Patel confirmed as Trump's FBI director

New FBI director Kash Patel has vowed to "rebuild" trust in the bureau as he becomes the inst indian American to lead the country's premier law enforcement agency after being confirmed by the US Senate. The Republican-led Senate narrowly voted to confirm 44-year old Patel on Thursday. The Senate voted $1$ to 49 to confirm Patel. Two Republicans, Susan Collins and Lisa Mutrkowski, voted against his confirmation.

coulms and Lisa AUTROWSKI, voted against his confirmation. The nomination faced intense scrutiny from Democrats on Capitol Hill who have warned that Patel is poised to use the position to seek retribution against Donald Trumps perceived political enemies. In his confirmation hearings, Patel also denied keeping a list of deep state "enemies, while playing down controversial past remarks he had made such as referring to law enforcement officials who investigated Trump as "criminal gangsters". After his confirmation, Patel posted on X." I am honoured to be confirmed as the ninth Director of the Federal Bureau of investigation. Thank you to President Trump and Attorney Ceneral Bondi for your unwavering confidence and support." The FBH has a storied legacy—from the "G-Men" to safeguarding our nation in the wake of 9/11. The American people deserve an FBH that is transparent, accountable, and committed to justice. The politicisation of our justice system has eroded public trust—but that ends today. My mission as Director is clear let good cops be cops—and rebuild trust in the FBI, he said, the also warmed that the agency would hunt down those who seek to harm Americans.

He was the 18th Cabinet official approved by Jawmakers since Trump was inaugurated a month ago.
