

FROM CHAPTER - 3
GATHERING TO GROWING FOOD

DATE: 26.04.2020
CLASS: VI C
IIIB

- Q1. Why do people who grow crops have to stay in the same place for a long time?
- Q2. List three ways in which the lives of farmers and herders would have been different from that of hunter-gatherers.
- Q3. How did people become farmers?
- Q4. How did people become herders?
- Q5. Describe tools used by farmers and herders.
- Q6. Which was the first animal to be tamed?
- Q7. Describe the site of Mehrgarh.
- Q8. Mention the two purposes for which grains had to be stored, what did people do to store grains?
- Q9. Name some important sites where archaeologists have found evidence of farmers and herders.
- Q10. What were Pit-Houses and where have they been found?
- Q11. List the cereals that you eat.
- Q12. State whether true or false:-
 - a) Millets have been found at Hallus.
 - b) People in Burzahom lived in rectangular houses.
 - c) Chirand is a site in Kashmir.
 - d) Jadeite, found in Daojoli Hading, may have been brought from China.